

Pupil Privacy Notice

Introduction

This notice is to help you understand how and why Bedford School collects your personal information and what we do with that information. It also explains the decisions that you can make about your own information.

We are giving you this notice because you are mature enough to make decisions about your personal information.

If you have any questions about this notice, please talk to your form tutor.

What is “personal information”?

Personal information is information that the School holds about you and which identifies you.

This includes information such as your name, date of birth and address as well as things like exam results, medical details and behaviour records. The School may also record your religion or ethnic group. CCTV, photos and video recordings of you are also personal information.

How and why does the School collect and use personal information?

We set out below examples of the different ways in which we use personal information and where this personal information comes from. The School’s primary reason for using your personal information is to provide you with an education.

- When you join the School, your admissions and acceptance forms give us lots of personal information. You, your parents, your teachers and other pupils may also provide information once you are a pupil in the school. Your old school also gives us information about you so that we can teach and care for you.
- Sometimes we get information from your doctors and other professionals where we need this to look after you.

We collect this information to help the School run properly, safely and to let others know what we do here.

Here are some examples:

- We need to tell the appropriate teachers if you are allergic to something or might need extra help with some tasks.
- We may need to share information about your health and wellbeing with the School doctor or counsellor.
- We use CCTV to make sure the school sites are safe. CCTV is not used in private areas such as changing rooms.
- We may need to report some of your information to the government. For example, we may need to tell the local authority that you attend one of the Harpur Trust’s schools or let them know if we have any concerns about your welfare.
- We may need information about any court orders or criminal matters which relate to you. This is so that we can safeguard your welfare and wellbeing and the other pupils at the Harpur Trust’s schools.
- If you are from another country, we have to make sure that you have the right to study in the UK. We might have to provide information to UK Visas and Immigration who are part of the government.

- Depending on where you will go when you leave us we may need to provide your information to other schools, colleges and universities or potential employers. For example, we may share information about your exam results and provide references. We may need to pass on information which they need to look after you.
- When you take public examinations (e.g. GCSEs) we will need to share information about you with examination boards. For example, if you require extra time in your exams.
- We may need to share information with the police or our legal advisers if something goes wrong or to help with an inquiry. For example, if one of your classmates is injured at school or if there is a burglary.
- Occasionally we may use consultants, experts and other advisors to assist the School in fulfilling its obligations and to help run the School properly. We might need to share your information with them if this is relevant to their work.
- If you have misbehaved in a serious way, and the police have become involved, we may need to use information about the action taken by the police.
- We may share some information with our insurance company to make sure that we have the insurance cover that we need.
- We may share your academic and (where fair) your behaviour records with your parents or guardian so they can support your schooling.
- We may share information about you between the schools in the Harpur Trust. For example, how well you have behaved at other schools in the Harpur Trust and your test results.
- We will only share your information with other people and organisations when we have a good reason to do so. In exceptional circumstances we may need to share it more widely than we would normally.
- We will monitor your use of email, the internet and mobile electronic devices e.g. iPads. This is to check that you are not misbehaving when using this technology or putting yourself at risk of harm. If you would like more information about this, you can read the acceptable use of IT and email policy or speak to your form tutor.
- We may use photographs or videos of you for our websites and social media sites or prospectus to show prospective pupils what we do here and to advertise the Harpur Trust. We may continue to use these photographs and videos after you have left the Harpur Trust's schools.
- Sometimes we use photographs and videos for teaching purposes, for example, to record a drama lesson.
- If you have concerns about us using photographs or videos of you, please speak to your form tutor.
- We publish our public exam results, sports fixtures and other news on the website, social media sites and send articles, photographs, and videos to local and national news outlets to celebrate the School's achievements.
- The Bedford School Association (BSA), which includes past parents and the Old Bedfordians Alumni Club, may keep details of your address when you leave so we can stay in touch through electronic communication and annual publications. Further information on the BSA can be found here: www.bedfordschool.org.uk/association/about-bsa/
- We may share your name and address with the Bedford School Foundation (which is operated by the Bedford School Association) for the purposes of fund raising appeals.
- We sometimes use contractors to handle personal information on our behalf. The following are examples:
  - IT consultants who might access information about you when checking the security of our IT network; and
  - we use third party "cloud computing" services to store some information rather than the information being stored on hard drives located on our sites.

If you have any concerns about any of the above, please speak to your form tutor.

Our legal grounds for using your information

This section contains information about the legal basis that we are relying on when handling your information.

Legitimate interests

This means that the processing is necessary for legitimate interests except where the processing is unfair to you. The School relies on legitimate interests for most of the ways in which it uses your information.

Specifically, the School and the Harpur Trust has a legitimate interest in:

- Providing you with an education.
- Safeguarding and promoting your welfare and the welfare of other children.
- Promoting the objects and interests of the School. This includes fundraising e.g. if we want to raise money to build new buildings.
- Facilitating the efficient operation of the School and the Harpur Trust.
- Ensuring that all relevant legal obligations of the School and the Harpur Trust are complied with.

In addition, your personal information may be processed for the legitimate interests of others. For example, we may use information about you when investigating a complaint made by one of your fellow pupils.

If you object to us using your information where we are relying on our legitimate interests as explained above, please speak to your form tutor.

Legal obligation

Where the School needs to use your information in order to comply with a legal obligation, for example to report a concern about your wellbeing to Children's Services. We may also have to disclose your information to third parties such as the courts, the local authority or the police where legally obliged to do so.

Vital interests

For example, to prevent someone from being seriously harmed or killed.

Public interest

The School and the Harpur Trust considers that it is acting in the public interest when providing education.

The School must also comply with an additional condition where it processes special categories of personal information. These special categories include: personal information revealing racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or philosophical beliefs, genetic information, biometric information, health information, and information about sex life or orientation. Trade union membership (e.g. if you are a member because of an apprenticeship) is also a special category of personal information.

Substantial public interest

The processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest.

Vital interests:

To protect the vital interests of any person where that person cannot give consent, for example, if they are seriously hurt and are unconscious.

Legal Claims

The processing is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims. This allows us to share information with our legal advisors and insurers.

Medical purposes

This includes medical treatment and the management of healthcare services.

We may ask for your consent to use your information in certain ways. If we ask for your consent to use your personal information you can take back this consent at any time. Any use of your information before you withdraw your consent remains valid. Please speak to your form tutor if you would like to withdraw any consent given.

Sending information to other countries

We may send your information to countries which do not have the same level of protection for personal information as there is the UK. For example, we may:

- store your information on cloud computer storage based overseas; or
- communicate with you by email when you are overseas (for example, when you are on holiday).

The European Commission has produced a list of countries which have adequate data protection rules. The list can be found here: ec.europa.eu/justice/data-protection/international-transfers/adequacy/index\_en.htm

If the country that we are sending your information to is not on the list or, is not a country within the EEA (which means the European Union, Liechtenstein, Norway and Iceland) then, it might not have the same level of protection for personal information as there is the UK.

We will provide you with details about the safeguards which we have in place outside of this privacy notice. If you have any questions about the safeguards that are in place, please contact the Head Master.

For how long do we keep your information?

We keep your information for as long as we need to in order to educate and look after you. We will keep some information after you have left the Trust's schools, for example, so that we can find out what happened if you make a complaint.

In exceptional circumstances we may keep your information for a longer time than usual, but we would only do so if we had a good reason and only if we are allowed to do so under data protection law.

We can keep information about you for a very long time or even indefinitely if we need this for historical, research or statistical purposes. For example, if we consider the information might be useful if someone wanted to write a book about the School or Harpur Trust.

The table below shows for how long we keep different types of information about you.
