

VERSE 1:

Everytime you turn on the radio,
No matter what the channel, no matter the show,
No country, classical, jazz or rock,
Only robo hypno mumbo jumbo three note pop.

Undetected impostors from outer space,
They infiltrated right into the human race,
No appreciation for the arts,
But that robo hypno mumbo jumbo tops the charts.

BRIDGE: The words never make any sense, It's all part of the hypnotic experience,
The melody's just more or less talking in monotone,
And it's another robo hypno mumbo jumbo three note clone,

CHORUS

And it goes: OH OH Oh (etc) x 4

They're taking over the world, when is it going to stop?
That crazy robo hypno mumbo jumbo three note pop.

VERSE 2:

Brainwashed into slavery to build a big gun,
And fire a whole lot of water straight on into the sun,
So the Sun will shrivel up, become incredibly dense,
Thus inexorably beginning a chain of events,

Whereby planet Gaviscon will be assaulted by storms,
Consequently killing all the seven red dwarves,
And the Phillislimes will own the entire milk road,
And the galaxy will be ruled by a big fat toad!

BRIDGE: The words never make any sense,
It's all part of the hypnotic experience,
The melody's just more or less talking in monotone,
And it's another robo hypno mumbo jumbo three note clone,

CHORUS

And it goes: OH OH Oh (etc) x 4

Full chorus (KEY CHANGE!!!)

And it goes: OH OH Oh (etc) x 4

They're taking over the world, when is it going to stop?
That crazy robo hypno mumbo jumbo three note pop.
