

If a boy is self-isolating because of a family member but he himself is not ill, or after recovering from COVID-19, we will provide him with blended learning

If a boy is not well enough to be in school, work will not be sent home and he will not be able to access remote teaching as he should be concentrating on getting better