NETWORKING

THURSDAY 26TH NOVEMBER - 7PM

OLIVER ENGLISH (07-12)

Oliver has worked across several sectors since graduating from Nottingham University. Starting his career within the family business, Ensign, before moving to London to work at a FinTech firm. Then, a stint with a wine company called Swirl within operations, the founding of a Japanese green tea wholesale side business, before returning to the family firm as Commercial Director.

Ensign is a family run design, build and install signage contractor working across Europe and North America for clients such as David Lloyd, Wells & Co and Equinox to name a few. Oliver has been responsible for growing the client base, helping make the company become less reliant on a few large customers and moving it into the public sector. He has also merged his tea company, SupaT, with a competitor to help expand the business.

Oliver is an energetic and motivated individual with exceptional networking skills.
