

A SPECIAL NIGHT

Little bird, flying high,
Gliding so silently across the winter sky;
Little star, shining bright,
Lighting his way on this cold winter night.
Please won't you tell me? Why is it so?
Is there something special you want me to know?

Little bird, little star shining bright,
Tell me what is so special tonight!

Little lamb, white as snow,
Watching the sky from the valley down below;
Little lamb, all alone,
Try to believe what a joy we have now.
Now we can tell you the good news we bring.
In a humble stable is born a King,
A gift of God, who is sent from above
To bring us peace and love.

Angels in heaven sing of His birth;
'Glory in the highest, and peace here on earth!'

The tiny child who is born on this night
Will teach us love, He will make things right,
He will bring us peace and light!
